

Completion of the Acquisition of the Assets of Rockdale Beef

Pursuant to the material fact published on March 19, 2010, JBS S.A. today confirms that, following the satisfaction of all relevant conditions precedent, including the approval of the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission, completion, through its wholly owned Subsidiary, Swift Australia, of the acquisition of the Assets of Rockdale Beef has taken place. JBS paid AUD 40.5 Million (Approx USD 37.3 Million) for the business, which is subject to further adjustments based on the level of the working capital at completion.

With a meatworks capacity of approximately 200,000 cattle per annum, and a feedlot capacity of over 53,000 cattle, Rockdale Beef will further enhance JBS's Australian presence. "As we look to gain efficiencies and serve our customers better, the addition of the Rockdale plant is a stride forward". Wesley Batista, CEO of JBS USA (parent of JBS Australia), commented. "With the integrated feedlot and the good cattle producers in the region, we will be able to customize evermore our raw material supply and reach the highest quality standards required by our many customers particularly those in Asia", Mr. Batista added.
