

NOTICE TO THE MARKET
Change in JBS Custody Agent

JBS S.A. (“Company”) informs its shareholders and the market in general that from January 19, 2015, Itaú Corretora de Valores S.A. (“Itaú”) will be the custody agent of the Company’s shares, replacing Banco Bradesco S.A.. Therefore, as of the reference date, shareholders’ services will be available through the nationwide network of branches of Itaú.

This migration will not imply in any change in the rights of the shares and all related payment will continue to be made in the same bank account previously informed by each shareholder.

Shareholders whose shares are held in custody of BM&FBOVESPA will remain served by their respective stockbroker and/or trustees and there will be no interruption on the trading of the Company’s shares.

The share transfer orders (transfer of custody) initiated by Bradesco until January 16, 2015 will be valid until January 21, 2015.

São Paulo, January 8, 2015.

Jeremiah O’Callaghan

Investor Relations Officer